

11th International Symposium on Cephalopods Present and Past

2nd Circular

The Symposium will be held at the Natural History Museum London, September 2022 organised in conjunction with the Geological Curators Group.

Many thanks for all your patience as we negotiate a plethora of factors adding complication to planning in the UK. I am delighted to announce finalised costs and plans for the symposium in September. I am excited to welcome you all to the NHM and hope to see you in person in September

Abstracts:

Abstract submission is open, please email abstracts to ISCPP11@nhm.ac.uk and complete this form. Abstract submission deadline has been extended to July 31st 2022.

Oral presentations will be limited to 15 minutes, including questions. Posters should be in portrait format in A0 size.

- Abstract Title should be entered in sentence case NOT title case.
- Maximum 250 words.
- The first and last names of EVERY author must be spelled in full; only giving an initial for the first name is insufficient.
- All names should be entered in sentence case ONLY; using all capitalised lettering is not acceptable.
- Use the full name for institutions. e.g. write out "NHM, UK" in full as "Natural History Museum, UK".
- DO NOT give full postal address for author institutions, give institution name and country ONLY.
- Abstract Text must be entered as you wish it to appear and should be formatted in standard sentence case. DO NOT enter text that is only capitalised.
- Include an image if relevant to the abstract.
